CODING - Kerekes. Dr. Tiber Kerekes, professor of history at Georgetown University, has been appointed a special consultant to the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee for the purpose of making a study of refugees, especially Hungarian, from the Iron Curtain countries now settled in Western Europe. His study will be concerned chiefly with efforts by Communist groups to induce their return to their native countries. Dr. Kerekes is a former Hungarian national who served as executive secretary of the American-Hungarian Society. He has many local contacts in the countries in which he is to visit whom he intends to see. He desires no publicity and will require a minimum of assistance in establishing and following through on his itinerary.

Dr. Kerekes is authorized to use local currencies from the Congressional Travel Account 19FT561 for his official expenses.

Provisions of the Handbook for Congressional Foreign Travel apply. Meet on all arrivals, expedite customs clearances, and assist as required.

The portion of Dr. Kerekes' itinerary which is firm is as follows:

Aug. 11	5:00 p.m.	LV New York	PA #61
12	1:45 p.m.	AR Rome
Aug. 15	8:00 a.m.	LV Rome	LAI #462
	1:45 p.m.	AR Vienna

Subsequent to his departure from Vienna, Dr. Kerekes will visit Salzburg, Graz, and Innsbruck. For the purpose of this portion of his trip, he desires to arrange for a car rental and chauffeur. After visiting the aforementioned cities, he will proceed to Frankfurt, Bonn, Paris and London, from which point he will return by air to New York.
